Description :

PDF-481cd | “Open at once! This is the GPU.” On a cold night in 1930, Vladimir Tchernavin’s home was raided by the GPU, the Soviet secret police, who ransacked his home looking for proof of “wrecking” activity. This was the beginning of two years of persecution, punishment and imprisonment for Tchernavin and his family. Although a penniless scientist who was aiding the U.S.S.R. with research in fishin... I Speak For The Silent Prisoners Of The Soviets
