Description :

PDF-0279e | A modern-day civil rights champion tells the stirring story of how he helped start a movement to bridge America's racial divide. Over the summer of 2013, the Reverend Dr. William J. Barber II led more than a hundred thousand people at rallies across North Carolina to protest restrictions to voting access and an extreme makeover of state government. These protests—the largest state government—... The Third Reconstruction: How a Moral Movement Is Overcoming the Politics of Division and Fear
